Singapore Manufacturing Federation Appoints New Secretary-General

19th January 2018, SINGAPORE – The Singapore Manufacturing Federation (SMF) is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Andy Yun as its Secretary-General with effect from 10th March 2018.

Mr. Yun started his career in the military where he spent about 18 years, before moving into the private sector. His appointments in the military included, amongst others, being the Officer-Commanding of Close Protection and the Military Police at the Ministry of Defence. Mr. Yun was also the Aide-de-Camp to President S R Nathan. In 2006, Mr. Yun moved into the private sector. His experience in the private sector included serving as the Chief Executive Officer of Manchester United Food & Beverage (Asia) Pte. Ltd., where he successfully expanded its operations from 2 outlets to 16 outlets in 8 countries over a period of less than 3 years. His last appointment, prior to joining SMF, was Chief Executive Officer of AladdinStreet Pte Ltd. Mr. Yun holds a Bachelor of Arts (Philosophy) degree from the National University of Singapore where he was a Singapore Armed Forces Local Merit Scholar.

Mr. Douglas Foo, President of SMF said: “Mr. Yun has a unique set of skills, gained from his experience in the military and the private sector. This background will enable Mr. Yun to handle the challenges and work to champion manufacturing and manufacturing services in Singapore collaboratively with governmental agencies and private sector enterprises. The Council of SMF is delighted with the appointment of Mr. Yun as they work together to take SMF and its members into new horizons.”

The President and the Council of SMF also wish to record their appreciation to Mr. Lam Joon Khoi for his past services as the Secretary-General of SMF and wish him well in his new endeavours.
